HOLE IN ONE ALERT! ZAMOKWAKHE PHUNGULA

Whilst some of us have been playing golf for decades and still hope for a Hole in one, 22 year old Zamokwakhe Phungula from Kloof Country Club has achieved this with such ease! Congratulations Zamo on your Ace on Hole 17, we at Port Shepstone Country Club are very proud of you and we are so glad to have celebrated this momentous event in your golfing life! We wish you all the best and hope for many more in your golf journey!

FIRST THINGS TO KNOW:

- It combines the elements of badminton and table tennis
- Playing tactics are focused on measured vs quick reflexes
- Scoring is different from padel or tennis.
- Played on a smaller court than that of tennis or padel courts
- Normally played in doubles but can be played in singles
- Equipment is similar to table tennis; rounded, solid paddles & perforated plastic ball
- Teams play to the best of 11 points or any odd number; winning by a lead of 2 points

A word from our GREENKEEPER...

JESSE VERSTER

Hi all. Nice rain for the course. We have just finished aerating all the greens with a 12 mil solid tine, it is necessary to do this on a regular basis to let oxygen into the root zone. Golf greens love this. On going cutting and weed eating staff are coming in to help during the growing season. Until next time... Cheers!
